

FGCC medals list
First name	Surname	Year presented	Medal	Presented by
Paul	Topley	1997	Bathroom carpet award in memory of the post-Cointreau induced slumber in the bath at the pub in Lewes	Tom Townsend
		1998	Reference library award for overenthusiastic distribution of general knowledge	Andy Mead
		1999	Wheel and forks award in recognition of position as Team Mechanic.	Chris Budd
		2000	Wire wool award for spoke knitting on the 3 Cathedrals ride.	Andy Mead
		2001	Chairman of the broken bones award in memory of the collarbone incident on the 2000 Lewes ride	Chris Budd
		2002	The "I just called to say you're not Zak then?" award, generously donated by Stevie Wonder in order to clear his name for the alleged disturbance of the peace.	Phillip Price
		2003	The Silver Spoon Award from Jagermeister
		2004	The Pumping Air patent award	Chris Budd
		2005	Scott Award in memory of the trusty (but stolen) Scott	Mark Avery
		2006	Broken Mechs award for being absent on three mech failure situations	Kim Bang-Sorensen
		2007	Top Transport Manager for the logistical legerdemain executed during the C2C ride in April 2007	Zachary Allen
		2008	The Freedom of Three Bridges Station TBD award for determination in the face of adversity.	John Roche
		2010	The Spoke-plaiting award for his skill in providing a temporary solution to broken spokes	Kim Bang-Sorensen
		2011	The Reluctant Tourist award in recognition of a recent maritime soujourn en famille	Andy Mead
		2012	The WRVS (Wayside Refreshment and Victualling Service) Rub Van Award for provision of tea and cake when most needed on the last very wet and cold day of the Dales ride.	Mark Avery
		2013	The ASBO award - Advanced Services in Bicycle Operations. For being a generally all round good guy especially including LSV duties on C2C, route planning and TM duties	Chris Budd
		2014	The Garden of England Escargot-go-go Award for his customary (make that "occasional") position at the safe end of the FGCC peleton.	Mark Thriscutt
		2015	The TM Kaftan award for 'sparing future waitresses from the terrible sight of Mr Kersley's Marmite top..... by delicately suggesting that he should consider tops that were a little more 'caftan'.	Tim Kersley
		2016	Lifetime Achievement Award for his team mechanic services to the FGCC	Andy Mead
		2017	The "Two Houses" medal , marking his family's overreaction to last year's period of homelessness.	Andy Mead
		2018	The Welcome Mug award for the welcome to the given to newcomer El Sid on his first FGCC ride.	Sid Roberts
		2019	The Foreign Landings Leadership award for leading the FGCC peloton on a smoothly planned and executed trip to Normandy	Richard Thomas
		2020	Taking Back Control award in recognition of his now advanced although lengthy transitional path to retirement which has had many parallels with a political event concerning the country (the "B" word)	Chris Budd
		2021/2	The Soft Lie Down award , for always (or nearly always) finding a soft area for a lie down	Roy Kruger
		2023	The "magic tool" award for notable service as the Club Mechanic and saving my personal ÓbaconÓ on at least one occasion	Thomas Brown
		2024	The Vital Statistics award for tirelessly gathering vital information for the much sought after and prestigious Bling Awards	Richard Thomas
Richard	Thomas	1997	The "I only use Dulux" award for artistic merit for creating the first commemorative site on collarbone alley	Zachary Allen
		1998	The "He'll do it anywhere" award upon appointment as The Official Campaign and War Artist for the FGCC.	John Roche
		1999	The "Barnes Wallis" award for Technical Innovation (following the introduction of "spring shocks")	Paul Topley
		2000	Group 4 award for carelessness in permitting the loss of his FGCC membership card in Switzerland	John Roche
		2001	Adrian Mole award for "calendular planning, change management and communications"	Mark Avery

		2002	The Roentgen-Reuters award for not knowing of the clavicular injury, and claims to join the Clavicular Splinter Group	Mark Avery
		2003	The frequent flyer award for regular Saturday morning rides	Chris Budd
		2004	The Arthur Daley award for used car dealing	John Roche
		2005	The Kodak award for photographic achievements on rides	Adam Peasey
		2006	The Keeping it up award for regularly being up for a ride!	Andy Mead
		2007	The Too Much Rice Eating award for his reaction the next morning to excessive consumption at the 2006 NGN event	Kim Bang-Sorensen
		2008	The Charlotte's Web award for dedicated building and maintenance (of the website).	Paul Topley
		2010	The SLUG (Swiss Loathers Unity Guild) award for his steadfastness in upholding the principles and tenets of the guild.	Mark Avery
		2011	The "you were there" award for a accompanying a whiter than the driven snow NW back to the village during a blizzard	Nigel Wilson
		2012	The "Pigmy potted poinsettia" award (or the "When a man's got to go...") for his direct line of travel through Jo Budd's patio pots at the Budd barbecue	Chris Budd
		2013	Alternative Fuel" award for consistently venturing out on Saturday mornings following APMs EPMs and NGNs.	Adam Cork
		2014	The Mug Madcap Award (aka #TheBestSelfieAward and the Fastest Down Hiller) for a very poor attempt at a selfie and mad downhill runs	Sam Penhallow
		2015	The Hellmans Award " to signify and pay tribute to his continuing work to set and maintain standards of behaviour and generally rid the area of the riff-raff that attempts to invade the environs of the FGCC"	John Roche
		2016	The Mr Busy doing nothing for retiring and being being busy doing nothing!	Chris Budd
		2017	The Top Cat Award for organising IOW/NF ride 2016 including getting the buy to purchase tickets for the Red Jet catamaran ferry only to discover that no bikes are permitted	Tim Kersley
		2018	The Hardest Way to lose a stone award for the impressive feat of building his own extension (with just one glass panel upside down)	Kim Bang-Sorensen
		2019	The Banque of Inland award for outstanding contribution to reducing rates of inflation/dodgy valves	Tim Kearsley
		2020	The Greta Thunberg award for putting the brakes on climate change	John Roche
		2021/2	The Most Companionable Cycling Mentor award for acclimatisation and cycling suitability instructor of aspiring new members of the FGCC	Ian Hollyholmes
		2023	The Tree Huggers award for misinforming gentlemen of the reasons for missing a ride due to surgery - omitting to say that it was surgery to a tree	John Roche
		2024	The TEMKEK EMF award for bravery in the face of TERISTtShHOODE	John Roche
Zach	Allen	1996	The unique, 'pre-punctured inner-tube' award (for the most useless item in a tool bag)	Paul Topley
		1997	The 'Order of the Golden Backside (RECTORUS AURECTUM)' award for continuously disappearing into the distance ahead of others on rides	Andy Mead
		1998	The Sir Isaac Newton award for laughing in the face of gravity upon the conception of the computerised office bike	Richard Thomas
		1999	The 'Team Vicar' award	Ewart Nightingale
		2000	The 'Trust me I am not just any old vicar – I am your vicar (piece of Roman pottery off the beach at Caesarea Maritima)' award	David Richards
		2001	The 'Over the Hill' award in recognition of expat. status	Paul Topley
		2002	The Train Set award for delusional possessionitis for acquisition of his son's Kona mountain bike.	Adam Peasey
		2003	The MOB's –R – US Award My Other Bike's – Really – Ultra Special (Too good for trekking) for presuming to turn up for a brek at Angus' on a bike he lamentably considers too special to be used for mere FGCC treks (a road bike)	Mark Avery
		2004	Vicar with the dodgy haircut award for trying to cut his own hair and making a pig's ear of it.	Paul Topley
		2005	The Right Then Award in the form of a toy (starting) pistol in recognition of his duties in getting the team going	Chris Budd
		2006	The "Managed to cook his own breakfast" award for preparing a magnificent brek in the absence of his better half	Chris Budd
		2007	The Entente Cordiale award.....	Chris Budd

		2008	No medal as not present
		2010	The Doffing the Cap award for his frequent attempts to demonstrate his elevated connections	Richard Thomas
		2011	No medal as not present
		2012	The Blimey what a picture award for his assiduity in energy saving and weight reduction by forgetting the batteries for his camera	Paul Topley
		2013	"Velocipede Vicar" award (with Oscar statue)!	Mark Thriscutt
		2014	No medal as not present
		2015	The Siesta award for falling asleep during a photography session at what is now referred to as Zach's pillow at the top of the golf course at Freshwater, IOW	Richard Thomas
		2016	No medal as was away consulting with the Bishop on higher matters
		2017	The Foundation award for being one of the foundation members of the FGCC	Mark Avery
		2018	No medal as not present
		2019	The Tsar of Faff award given for his ability to indulge in smelling the roses even when (other) pressing issues attempt to press on his time	Chris Budd
		2020	The Yes I Do Have a Retirement Plan award for his plans on cycling	Roy Kruger
		2021/2	The Darn It Again award in recognition of losing his phone twice in quick succession due to a pocket malfunction - a most holy incident.	Tim Kersley
		2023	The regularly "coming off the subs bench" award thus aiding vacationing vicars everywhere	Andy Mead
		2024	The 'postman pat' award in respect of his research into postal matters undertaken whilst at Rhymehorne farm Somerset	Tim Kersley
Andy	Mead	1996	The Mechanical Diversity award for the yellow bike with no gears	Paul Topley
		1997	The Flat Earth Society award for refusal to accept the existence of hills.	Richard Thomas
		1998	The Flat Earth Society award	Phillip Price
		1999	The Imperial Leather award for the latent communist	David Tomalin
		2000	The Cholesterol-free brek award	Paul Topley
		2001	The Flat Earth Society award	David Richards
		2002
		2003	The Karaoke Award for his vocal efforts in the Bluebell pub, Cocking.
		2004
		2005	The "Little Place in the Country" Award for selfless application to the important task of preparing his "atelier rustique" so as to have a contrasting refuge to the spacious luxury of Mead Towers	Paul Topley
		2006	The Wild Blue Yonder Award , for his selfless devotion in forsaking his shed to accompany his offspring to the ends of the earth in search of basketball	Ewart Nightingale
		2007		Mark Avery
		2008	The Companionship (or Fauteuille d'amiable) award for his great concern on the R2R ride that the LSV director should not be on his own.	Francois Leroux
		2010	No medal as not present
		2011	The FGCC Honorary Yorkshireman award for being the one most likely to be mistaken as a local in the magnificent country of the white rose.	David Snelson
		2012	The "Oh sh*t, go shopping we're doing breakfast" for holding a brekafast that had been thrust upon him by the APM in his absence	George Derrick
		2013	No medal as not present
		2014	The A R S E (Ayres Rock Steadfastly Ereest!) Award for steadfastness in the teeth of a gale	Mark Avery
		2015	He cannot remember what he received nor can the presenter
		2016	The Champagne Charlie Award for his tendency to only turn up for rides that involved more luxurious breks	Paul Topley
		2017	The Maverick Award for "kicking against the pricks" for his selfless devotion to teaching children despite the pressures of the bureaucrats to try to make him follow rules.	John Roche

		2018	The Three Degrees Wisest Monkey Award for academic achievements following his MA recently received.	Tim Kearsley
		2019	Jamaican steel drummer award for his impressive ability to cook bacon, play the pan lids and extinguish flames at the same time	Kim Bang-Sorensen
		2020	The Leading Light award for his universal ability to shed light and be a beacon to us all	Paul Topley
		2021/2	The Sock it to Jamaica award in recognition of him cycling over 5000 miles last year, enough mileage to have arrived in Jamaica	Chris Budd
		2023	"Tsetse fly" (aka Sleeping sickness) award for his often used praise "I'm just woken up. Let me know where you're going"	Kim Bang-Sorensen
		2024	Regrettably no award as not present due to failings of the NHS..
John	Roche	1996	The Sartorial Elegance award for always shaving in the evening on overnight rides.	Paul Topley
		1997	The Collarbone Award for the break on the appropriately renamed Collarbone Alley.	Ewart Nightingale
		1998	The Journalist Award of the year award for services to Journalism relating to the annual football match.	Zach Allen
		1999
		2000	The Lovely Boy award	Philip Price
		2001	The Crustacean Award for cruelty to a live lobster in France.	Ewart Nightingale
		2002	The TEMKEK award, surely	?
		2003	The anti-TEMKEK award for letting the side down.	?
		2004	The Low Maintenance Award in recognition of the fact that he seems to get away with next to no maintenance on his bike	Zachary Allen
		2005	No medal as not present
		2006		Zachary Allen
		2007		Andy Mead
		2008	The Caring helps improve performance award (aka the Care in the community award) for his sufferance of multiple punctures on the Downslink Ride and the manner of his acceptance of chips	Chris Budd
		2010	The Dr Gillian McKeith award for services to the advocacy of salt and butter, and the promotion of the tomato in all its culinary forms	Paul Topley
		2011	The Anacharsis Cloutz award for the longest (40 minutes) medal presentation whilst coping with the most heckling at the 2010 medal presentations	Richard Thomas
		2012	The Chutney Ferret of the Year award in recognition of his obsession with back (i.e. Northwest not proctological) passages	David Snelson
		2013	The 'Look to yourself, the competition's hot' award , fashioned principally from a Kenyan tea bag, in honour of his Malaysian Tea enterprise	Zach Allen
		2014	The BNFR Award (Biggest Nuisance to female Revellers, as opposed to Big Noise in Tana Rata) for being a giant of the FGCC and forever married to it (despite obvious attempts at polygamy).	Tim Kersley
		2015	The Blasteet Award in recognition of his desperate attempt to put life into an inner tube on which the valve had separated from the tube, during a subsequently failed ride to Henfield	Roy Kruger
		2016	The Amplifier Award for being a big noise, not only in Tana Rata	Mark Avery
		2017	The Cunning Tea Price Negotiator (don't think of his poor people) - aka Trump level negotiator - award. John interpreted this as being for his negotiations with his people over the sordid matter of money, his people reasonably arguing that they were not prepared to lower their standards in the interests of satisfying a greedy public.	Kim Bang-Sorensen
		2018	The Chain Distraction Award for his contribution to the annals on the C2C ride where he created a great mystery over where the peloton were, possibly a cover for making further engagement propositions with women "dogging the peloton". The award of 3 chain links represented both the missing links and what he might have used in place of traditional rings.	Chris Budd
		2019	The Mal Derriere Anusol Award for his statement on the Normandy ride "my arse knows that it has been for a long ride"	Zachary Allen
		2020	The Michael Gove award for smooth talking (aka talking b0$ $0c£s) even after the intake of the golden gallon	Kim Bang-Sorensen
		2021/2	No medal as not present
		2023	The Fortitude award for enduring the pain of a broken arm, without complaint, for the last 20 miles of the 2022 Go West ride	Richard Thomas
		2024	MUA Award (sponsored by Landrover) for maintaining TEMKEK standards by burrowing his way out of WHQ to escape in his new-found 4 wheeled steed.	Matthew Bourne

Mark	Avery	1996	The Kamikaze award for head-butting a railway sleeper and for the infamous divine wind	Paul Topley
		1997	The missing link award for the excellent mechanical condition of his steed.	???
		1998	The Short Fuse award for reactions to other members not observing the 10 minute rule	???
		1999	The hip flask award	Paul Topley
		2000
		2001	The Sherlock Holmes award for consternation amongst members as to Mark's whereabouts. AKA the missing persons award.	Zach Allen
		2002
		2003	The Vitalite Fat Free award for the dramatic loss of the tyre.	Richard Thomas
		2004	The Bright and Keen Award for keeping his bicycle as he keeps his honour - Bright and Keen.	Ewart Nightingale
		2005	The Unchained Melody Award for...	Zachary Allen
		2006	TV Maintenance Man / Good Samaritan award for services to	John Roche
		2007		Ewart Nightingale
		2008	The Gordon Ramsay award for his colourful description of what he wanted to do to a certain person at the Bike Store at the start of the Reg 05 ride	Richard Thomas
		2010	The Vorsprung durch Technik award for his perennial willingness to ferry his FGCC colleagues to venues, thus enabling them to partake of a half or two!	Zachary Allen
		2011	The Tree Hugger award for his ability of bumping into trees (both vertical and horizontal)	Kim Bang-Sorensen
		2012	The Good Succession Planning award for getting the next generation (Clare Avery + Carl) to support the FGCC by providing a brek	John Roche
		2013	The "Big Issue" award to celebrate Mr Avery's new (and hopefully temporary) status as the official FGCC Homeless person	Paul Topley
		2014	The "Who?" Award for his ability to avoid FGCC rides for long periods of times. (Pot calling kettle black as it happens!)	Kim Bang-Sorensen
		2015	The Mark "Links" Avery Award for his capacity for frequently breaking his chains	Andy Mead
		2016	The Wind in the Willows Award for coming to TK's aid when he fell into the nettles at the side of the River Arun whilst others were more intent on photographing the event	Tim Kearsley
		2017	The International Diplomacy Award for his consistent and continuous representation of the FGCC abroad, mostly north of Watford Gap	Richard Thomas
		2018	The Shoeless Joe Jackson Award in recognition of the lack of footwear he so ably demonstrated at the beginning of the C2C ride	Paul Topley
		2019	The Jeeves Manners award for his courteous service to the FGCC at all times as demonstrated by turning up for a ride to inform all that he had forgotten his shoes.	Richard Thomas
		2020	The Honorary Degree in Flatology award from the University of Windsor for upholding his title of team Aromatherapist	Andy Mead
		2021/2	No medal as not present
		2023	The Good Samaritan Tow Rope award for rescuing Mr Kersley with an e-bike tow from Durrington to Findon	Roy Kruger
		2024	The Two-in-one award for combining two steeds to make one fully functioning bike	Roy Kruger
Chris	Budd	1998	The Learner award , his having only just got on 2 wheels	Paul Topley
		1999	The I can see clearly award for the crash in the dark on the Far East ride to Cocking – Reg 5	Phillip Price
		2000	The Brass Monkeys award for continuous use of shorts throughout the winter.	Richard Thomas
		2001	The Shorts for shorts award for continuous use of shorts throughout the winter.	Phillip Price
		2002	The Hot Water Bottle award for beginning to feel the cold in winter whilst still insisting on wearing only shorts.	Zach Allen
		2003	The Budds Mud Award for the use of mud as means of lubrication.	John Roche

		2004	The Marigold Award (Premier Cru) , "I wash my hands of your entreaties against vinicultural quests", for his diversion via a Roman Vineyard during the IOW ride 2003	Mark Avery
		2005	The Bacons award for incoherence his whilst nobly trying to consider other members' interests.	Richard Thomas
		2006		Adam Peasey
		2007	The Narcolepsy award in recognition of his appreciation of the enlightening and scintillating conversation at FGCC dinners	Richard Thomas
		2008	The Pretend Sufferer Award (aka the Spastics Society award) for his various disabilities during the year - electric resistance, frost resistance, tea intake, etc.	Kim Bang-Sorensen
		2010	The Upside Down Piano Player award relating to the specific benefits that a swollen, knobbly finger can bring to said activity.	David Snelson
		2011	The Kamakura award presented to Mr Chris Budda Budd for his intermittent spiritual leadership	Paul Topley
		2012	The Thermometer award to remind him when to put his gloves on or when to get out of the bath (!)	Kim Bang-Sorensen
		2013	The Meet on School Hill award to remind him where his proper place is within the FGCC until he comes to his senses and returns.	Mark Avery
		2014	No award , but a new version of breakfast TV via live link from NGN to New Zealand	All
		2015	No award and no live link due to his being somewhere in the pacific this time
		2016	The John Bullimore Award for successfully sailing the Southern Pacific (unlike John Bullimore)	John Roche
		2017	The Prevention Against Growing up award in recognition of his youthful enthusiasm for, continuing energetic contributions to and perennial participation in the FGCC and all its activities	Zach Allen
		2018	The Old Habits Die Hard award for his motivation of the peloton during the Monarch's way ride cracking the whip at appropriate times	Richard Thomas
		2019	0.5 Star Food Advisor award for his assessment of the Buffalo Grill! During the Normandy trip	Mark Avery
		2020	The 'Most Youthful of Grandfathers' award for his continuing commitment to the best traditions of the club as one of the first to belong to the youth wing and now despite relative youthfulness, soon to be elevated to patriarchal status amongst members of his own tribe.'	Zachary Allen
		2021/2	The Cosa Nostra award for my retirement from mainstream employment in order to allegedly enrol with the local mafia in Italy. (Strong denial from Chris)	Kim Bang-Sorensen
		2023	No award as not present due to escaping a dismal British winter for a break in Italy.
		2024	The accomplishments award for his determination and resolve to set new targets, rise to fresh challenges, explore new possibilities and generally progress in 'accomplishments', many and various.	Zach Allen
Kim	Bang-Sorensen	2006	The Flying Dane award In recognition of his struggle to shake off his ancestral instincts and take up the noble traditions of the FGCC	Richard Thomas
		2007	The Routemaster Award for not to been able to follow a straight line, or with John's own words: 1. Having dispensed entirely with the basic principles of geometric mathematics, and 2. Having dispensed entirely with the basic principles of cartographic navigation	John Roche
		2008	The Three Nuts Award for always carrying extra components so he is not kept short, supplemented by water ???? For his aqueous excursions?	Mark Avery
		2010	The Rear-view Mirror Award (when not being worn) to remind M le Bas of who is with him in the peleton and what they look like	George Derrick
		2011	The "Can't Do Mountains" award for failing to keep his feet off the ground during ascents, in contrast to his honorary "Flying Dane" title	Mark Avery
		2012	The Smiling Assassin award for his ever smiling and charming countenance combined with his propensity to fire off the occasional very direct - at times, even devastating, short pithy emails on Cyclenet	Zach Allen
		2013	Lantern Rouge' Award In recognition of unsung support by; 1) Innovative procurement of water. 2) Creating a period of rest for every other rider by climbing each hill at a very slow walking pace.	Tim Kearsley
		2014	The Flying Choclatier Award for his flitting around the countryside selling chocolates	Andy Mead

		2015	No award due to his preferring to be in Cantonland for some strange reason
		2016	The Courtesy Award for his brave and daring deed to try to educate a female driver in School Hill	Richard Thomas
		2017	The Certificate of Britishness award for his efforts in tackling the unbelievably bureaucratic system to achieve citizenship in order to remain a member of the FGCC.	Chris Budd
		2018	The Cycling Prohibited Award for rousing the fury of a particular farmer with his trespassing activities witnessed by RT	Roy Kruger
		2019	The Formally British award to our erstwhile Flying Dane, who has now become the celebrated Flying Brit.	Paul Topley
		2020	The Gone for a Burton award for Continuously Eccentric Cycling	Mark Avery
		2021/2	The Old Habits Die Hard award for blowing his Flying Brit cover and reverting to his ancestral instincts on rides and giving two fingers to the world of work so he can enjoy BDN rides again	Richard Thomas
		2023	Beady N award to mark his attendance at BDN rides last year.	Paul Topley
		2024	The Lost Souls award for getting so much more lost than usual that he sadly no longer resides in the UK	Mark Avery
Tim	Kersley	2013	The Civil Engineering Constructor's medal to commemorate the disastrous start to his career at Network Rail where, after being handed charge of a splendid Victorian-engineered bridge (that had stood rigid and proud for about 150 years), it promptly collapsed.	John Roche
		2014	The Papadom Award for his commitment and dedication to his duty as FGCC Official Spicy food inspector, earning himself the title of King Curry	Richard Thomas
		2015	The Backdoor Award for the circuitous route he organised into Lewes during the 2014 Go West ride
		2016	The Memorial Award for his persistent attempts to obtain a memorial for his crash on school hill, against all the odds	Roy Kruger
		2017	The Jousting Award for organising the jousting session in remembrance of the 950th anniversary of the battle of Hastings	Roy Kruger
		2018	St Bernard's "lest you are called short" medal in recognition of his splendid thirst slaking services as Team Victualler.	Mark Avery
		2019	The Seeing the Light award following his return from the wilderness of late and circular route planning to a triumph of P-Ming for the go West rides	John Roche
		2020	The Patton Baton award for PM'ing the Oxford ride and mercilessly driving the peloton on to a timely finish each day	Richard Thomas
		2021/2	The Greta Thunberg eco warrior medal in recognition of reduced fossil fuel use age and reduction of emissions both vehicular and corporeal	Paul Topley
		2023	GOOD SHEPHERD AWARD for his diligent tending of his 'flock' in bringing an 'errant sheep' safely back into the 'fold' as Le Peloton was about to depart Alfriston on the Go West Ride, 7th October 2022	Zach Allen
		2024	The 'it's a small price to pay' award for his 6 point plan to justify his first ebike to Mrs Kersley and to demonstrate to analogue founder members how the Youff can take TEMKEK to a new level.	Chris Budd
Roy	Kruger	2015	The Green L Plate award for being the new boy of the FGCC	Mark Avery
		2016	The Condom Award for...? I cannot translate Danish	Kim Bang-Sorensen
		2017	The Rock Award for his constant and reassuring presence on Mr Crawfords first series of rides with the FGCC	Bob Crawford
		2018	The British Bulldog award for his regular attendance at FGCC rides whatever the weather	Andy Mead
		2019	The Going Dutch (Clog) award in recognition of his charity ride to Amsterdam	Andy Mead
		2020	The Dog Fight of the Year award for providing a human shield to the rest of the peleton amongst an aerial bombardment from a red kite whilst in the foothills surrounding Chequers...	Tim Kersley
		2021/2	Accidental Terrorist award for accidentally setting off a bomb he had unwisely hidden in his rear wheel	Andy Mead
		2023	The Cinderoyla the Croc award for forgetting to bring cycle shoes to a Saturday ride	Tim Kersley
		2024	The Wings Award for obtaining his pilot's licence thereby being able to further advance his covert activities on behalf of the FGCC and the world	Jason Townend
Thomas	Brown	2023	The Fit Controller Award for services to the airline industry and other nefarious and clandestine operations.	Andy Mead
		2024	The Shrunkn Jacket or I'm too Fat award for not being able to fit into his new cycling jacket (which he gave to the presenter of this award)	Kim Bang-Sorensen

Matthew	Bourner	2024	The DHARB (Does He Actually Ride His Bike) Award in recognition of the immaculateness of his steed and equipment, presented by Cap'n Long John Kersley
Jason	Townend	2024	The Order of the "Tweezer Geezer" for demonstrating "pluck" for joining the Lewes ride after only one ride with the FGCC	Paul Topley
Ian	Hollyholmes	2021/2	Robert the Bruce perseverance award for re-saddling after unplanned "lie-downs"	Zach Allen
Ewart	Nightingale	1996	The Culinary award for chefs activities assisting the wives with preparation of Breks.	Paul Topley
		1997	The Good Egg and Brick Award (for sustenance by way of Bucks fizz on various rides.	Andy Mead
		1998	LSV Directorate Award (I think anyway. My medal has van on it)	????
		1999	The Bat and Ball Award in recognition of the record number of runs that he has made for the FGCC and in particular for his service during the famed Three Cathedrals Ride, 1998	Richard Thomas
		2000	The John the Baptist award for going before.	Zach Allen
		2001	Pierre Cardin Award for Vibrant V Necks 2001	Andy Mead
		2002	The Hiya Boyo Award In recognition of his: Tenacity, Ability, Financial Acumen, Food appreciation. YES	David A Richards
		2003
		2004	The "Man with the Golden Tongue" award for his linguistic and gustorial services to the FGCC	Richard Thomas
		2005	The Lost Keys Award for the unfortunate absence of the Rover car keys after having relieved himself at Freshwater Bay golf club car park on the IOW ride	Andy Mead
		2008	The Perfect Gentleman award.	Andy Mead
Mark	Thriscutt	2013	The Consultant's Sermon on the Mount award, a.k.a The Talking Bollocks award , for his entertaining tirade against the road system in Uganda, amongst others, along with blatant admission of his style of speaking.	Richard Thomas
		2014	The Trailblazers Award for his pioneering work in Africa and other continents on behalf of the FGCC	John Roche		